

ANDREW WILLIAMS, P. GEO

111 Superior Avenue SW, Calgary, T3C 2H8, Canada

Tel: 416 209 2056 Email:acwilliams@live.ca

Career Summary

A skilled mineral industry professional with over 30 years' international experience in project management including permitting and environmental studies, mineral exploration, resource evaluation, permitting, project development and mining.

- Currently Environment Manager for Pine Point Mining Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Osisko Metals. Responsible for all aspects of environmental and permitting for the Pine Point Project.
- Experience in Canada (NWT, SK, ON), Southern Africa, Australia and Russia in early and advanced exploration project and mines.
- Permitting Manager for De Beers Canada diamond mines.
- Project Manager of the Gahcho Kué Project, NWT. Owners lead for the development of the projects' first feasibility study. Project Manager for the project including the permitting and community consultation phases, overseeing the permitting team from development and submission of the project description for the EA and permitting phases.
- Project Manager of the Fort a la Corne Joint Venture Project, SK. Developed and executed the exploration/evaluation programs including environmental baseline studies. Community consultation, including local employment and business opportunities. Liaising with academic and industry experts to optimize programs.
- Venetia Mine Open Pit Technical Services Manager, leading the technical services team of geologists, geotechnicians and surveyors to manage mineral resource depletion and expand the resource base. Initiated Venetia Resource Extension Program that ultimately lead to underground mine development.
- Developed Operational Readiness execution planning for the Gahcho Kue Mine working with department heads to schedule and monitoring progress for the tasks required for each operating department on the mine to by ready for operations at the completion of construction.

Memberships

- Association of Professional Geoscientists Ontario (P. Geo designation).
- Society of Exploration Geophysicists.
- Prospectors and Developers Association.