

Yukon Government - Engagement Plan

Parties that will be engaged are listed in the pre-engagement record; every attempt will be to engage with all Parties on the list moving forward, unless there are specific requests from them indicating they no longer want us to engage

When will you be engaging?	What is the purpose for engaging	Who will be engaged at each of these stages?	How will you engage?	Comments
Before application submission to notify Parties of the Government of Yukon's intention to submit application for a Type A Land Use Permit and a Type B Water Licence (occurred August, September, & October, 2024)	To notify stakeholders and First Nation governments of the intention to apply for a Type A Land Use Permit and a Type B Water License	Representatives of First Nation governments (identification of the correct contact was made by calling each First Nation and asking advice); individuals; and other officials	Telephone and/or email (already completed)	Note that in the emails and telephone conversations that have occurred, Parties have been asked how they would like to be contacted during the life of the project; for those Parties that have responded, their communication requests will be adhered to.
Upon application submission (to occur September, 2024)	To notify stakeholders and First Nation governments that applications have been submitted	Representatives of First Nation governments; individuals and other officials, unless there has been explicit instruction that no further engagement is required	Telephone or email or via Teams
When there is confirmation of funds available for the project (TBD)	To notify stakeholders and First Nation governments that funds for the project have been secured and that there are plans to move forward with the project	Representatives of First Nation governments; individuals and other officials, unless there has been explicit instruction that no further engagement is required	Telephone or email or via Teams
When an RFP for the work has been made public (TBD)	To notify stakeholders and First Nation governments that an RFP has been made public	Representatives of First Nation governments; individuals and other officials, unless there has been explicit instruction that no further engagement is required	Telephone or email or via Teams
When project timelines have been established (TBD)	To notify stakeholders and First Nation governments the timelines for the project	Representatives of First Nation governments; individuals and other officials, unless there has been explicit instruction that no further engagement is required	Telephone or email or via Teams
When work begins (TBD)	To notify stakeholders and First Nation governments that work has started	Representatives of First Nation governments; individuals and other officials, unless there has been explicit instruction that no further engagement is required	Telephone or email or via Teams

When the project ends (TBD)	To notify stakeholders and First Nation governments that work has been completed	Representatives of First Nation governments; individuals and other officials, unless there has been explicit instruction that no further engagement is required	Telephone or email or via Teams
When the permits/licenses have been closed (TBD)	To notify stakeholders and First Nation governments that the permits are closed	Representatives of First Nation governments; individuals and other officials, unless there has been explicit instruction that no further engagement is required	Telephone or email or via Teams
If there are any spills or other environmental concerns (if applicable)	To notify stakeholders and First Nation governments that a spill or other environmental incident has taken place.	Representatives of First Nation governments; individuals and other officials	Telephone
If there are changes to the project and/or timelines (if applicable)	To notify stakeholders and First Nation governments that changes to the project and/or timeline has been made.	Representatives of First Nation governments; individuals and other officials	Telephone or email or via Teams	