

Engagement Plan v.2.1

Checkpoint Highway Maintenance Facility LUP and WL Application

Name of Proponent: Environmental Protection and Waste Management Division (EPWM), Environment and Climate Change (ECC), Government of the Northwest Territories (GNWT)

Name of Affected Parties:

- Jean Marie River (Tthets'éhk'édélj) First Nation
- Łíídlı́ Kúé First Nation
- The Métis Association Local 52 - Fort Simpson, NWT
- Dehcho First Nation
- Sambaa K'e First Nation
- Nahanni Butte Dene Band
- Acho Dene Koe First Nation
- Deh Gáh Got'ie Dene Council
- Ka'a'gee Tu First Nation
- Pehdzéh Kí First Nation
- Kát'odeeche First Nation
- Fort Providence Métis Council
- West Point First Nation
- Łíídlı́ Kúé First Nation
- Village of Fort Simpson
- Jean Marie River Development Corporation
- Checkpoint Bed and Breakfast

Engagement Plan:

When will you be engaging?	What is the purpose for engaging?	Who will be engaged at each of these stages?	How will you engage?
Prior to submitting application for the renewal of the Type A Land Use Permit and Type B Water Licence	To notify of our intent to renew our land use permit and water licence	Affected parties listed above	Written notification, with a copy of the project summary
During the public engagement period through the Mackenzie	To discuss our intent to renew our land use permit and water licence. To	Affected parties listed above	Written communication through the MVLWB online review system

When will you be engaging?	What is the purpose for engaging?	Who will be engaged at each of these stages?	How will you engage?
Valley Land and Water Board Online Review System for the Land Use Permit and Water Licence renewal process	resolve any concerns that arise and to incorporate suggestions that will improve the application package	Public at large	Written communication through the MVLWB online review system
Providing updates during care and maintenance program at the Checkpoint Landfarm and Former Highway Maintenance Camp	To provide project updates when milestones are achieved, resolve any concerns that arise and to incorporate suggestions that will improve care and maintenance and monitoring program at the sites	Affected parties listed above	Written communication, face-to-face meetings when requested depending on level of interest
Prior to remediation	To discuss remedial options and remedial action plan. To resolve any concerns that arise and to incorporate suggestions that will improve the remediation strategy of the site	Affected parties listed above	Written communication, face-to-face meetings when requested.
During remediation	To provide project updates, and to resolve any concerns that arise during remediation activities.	Affected parties listed above	Written communication, face-to-face meetings when requested
At completion of remediation activities	To review the condition of the remediated site	Affected parties listed above	Written communication and face-to-face meetings when requested
		Public at large	Written communication via local media as requested and public meeting if requested, depending on the level of interest
During long-term monitoring of the sites	To provide project updates on monitoring activities, and to resolve any concerns that arise	Affected parties listed above	Written communication and face-to-face meetings when requested, depending on level of interest